

Annual IGeLU-Conference in Helsinki, September 2009

Call for Presentations and Posters

IGeLU invites you to submit proposals for presentations and poster sessions at its 4th annual conference in Helsinki, Finland. The conference will take place from 6th to 9th September. Information and links are on the IGeLU website <http://www.igelu.org/>. The Helsinki website is <http://igelu2009.org/>

Please note that for organisational reasons, this year the deadlines for submitting presentation proposals are earlier than in previous years.

	PRESENTATIONS	POSTERS
DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION:	1 April 2009	1 May 2009
TARGET FOR ACCEPTANCE:	1 June 2009	1 June 2009

Topics: Proposals may cover any of the Ex Libris products, the interactions between them, and their interoperation with other systems. We are interested in users' experiences of Aleph and ARC, Voyager, SFX, MetaLib, Verde, DigiTool, Rosetta (digital preservation system) and Primo. Proposals may also cover topics that relate to the wider development of library and information systems. For example:

- Innovative use of products
- Integration of products with each other or with external systems
- Experiences of latest releases of products
- Experiences with new products, e.g., Primo, Rosetta
- Authentication and authorization, e.g., PDS, Single Sign On, Shibboleth
- Follow up to highlights of last year's meeting: <http://www.igelu.org/conference-2008>
- Next-generation systems
- Optimising systems and maximising resources
- Work of IGeLU Focus Groups
- Usability/accessibility of interfaces
- Consortia issues
